

Class Six Homework: Friday 27th November 2020

Calculations – The Four Operations

Following on from our Maths work this week, you have 20 calculations below to solve. You can do these in your Home-School Journal, or on paper, and we will be marking them in class on Friday 4th December. We have spent most of our time this week on Addition, Subtraction and Multiplication, so these should go fairly smoothly. We have only recently started our work on division, but I would like you to have a go at these problems and see how you get on.

If you need help, or a quick confidence boost, there is a brief video on the Video Resource Centre which outlines the methods you need to use, and shows you how to lay out your calculations. You can use this as much or as little as you need.

Good luck!
